Case study

They then developed these into a set of similes and metaphors and wrote creative poems about empathy.

Empathy helps someone feel safe like a warm blanket.

Empathy connects us to each other like a bridge.

Empathy reflects how someone else might feel, like a mirror into their soul.

Like a steady hand, empathy supports someone when they wobble.

Empathy is a key that unlocks understanding.

Empathy is a glue that holds friendships together.

Empathy is a window into someone else's world.

Empathy is a soft light that brightens someone's bad day.

Empathy is a bridge that helps us meet in the middle.

Empathy is a quiet voice reminding us to be kind.

Empathy is a window into someone else's world.

Empathy is a key that unlocks understanding.

Empathy is choosing
To pause and really see,
To listen with your heart
And be the best that you can be.
It's stepping into someone's shoes
To understand their day,
And offering your kindness
In a thoughtful, caring way.

By Leigha and Natalie

Empathy's a superpower
That helps me understand,
Like knowing when my friend needs help
Before they hold out their hand.

It's noticing her wobble
Like a penguin on the ice,
And offering her kindness
Instead of giving her advice.

By Poppy

Everyone has feelings.
Make time to listen.
Put yourself in their shoes.
Always be kind.
Try to understand.
Help when you can.
You can make someone smile.

By Kendal

Empathy is an inner strength that helps us notice when someone is hurting.
It's like a light in a window on a dark night,
showing others they are not alone.
